

MIRISSA BEACH STAY

South coast relaxation at its best

Mirissa is the largest fishing port on the south coast and is known for its tuna, mullet, snapper and butterfish, and is one of the island's main whale and dolphin watching locations. There are plenty of other things to do here, the beach stretches far along the coast and is the perfect place to soak up sun for a day or two. A number of restaurants and bars back onto the beach, so there are plenty of places to watch sunset and enjoy a drink or two come nightfall. For such a small place, there's everything travellers could possibly want and need.
