Day 04: 18TH FEBRUARY 2012 (SATURDAY)

Jaffna

Morning breakfast at the hotel.

Visit Our Lady Of Remedies Church, Sillalai.

The Church of Our Lady of Remedies is situated in Sillalai, Jaffna. This church is considered to be one of the oldest churches in the north. The history of its origin goes back to Portuguese regime in Ceylon. The Portuguese missionaries came to Jaffna in 1544 to propagate Christianity and built few churches in the peninsula. In 1687, Blessed Joseph Vaz came in disguise from India in a boat to preach and propagate Christianity and landed on the shores of Sillalai. The Catholics in Sillalai learning the arrival of a priest met him with joy and harbored him and looked after him with respect recognizing him as Fr. Joseph Vaz from Goa. They listened to his preaching and inherited the word of God and participated in Holy Mass and Sacraments conducted in secret dwellings and sustained their faith in Christ and Mother Mary.

And also visit the Bottomless well (Nilavarai) which has a large square well believed to be formed as tradition says from an arrow shot by Hanuman to satisfy thirst of Rama. This is famous as the depth unknown (bottomless) well.

Free time for shopping or any other activities for your preference.

Lunch at hotel.

After lunch, then drive through the Pannai Bridge and visit the Shrine of Our Lady of Good Voyage Church, Chatty.

The Shrine of Our Lady of Good Voyage is situated in a village called Chatty, Kayts in Jaffna diocese. It is said a Portuguese vessel lost its direction in the Indian Ocean and found it difficult to reach the shore. The Captain of the vessel a firm believer of Blessed Virgin Mary on board and he prayed for their safety and by the miraculous act of Blessed Virgin Mary the ship and its crew safely reached the shores at Chatty. History records that they took possession of the place and built a fortress in Chatty with a chapel inside and placed the miraculous statue of Mother Mary which was with them on board and venerated her with much piety and devotion and propagated her devotion among the inhabitants.

After visiting the Church, you may have some time to swim in Chatty beach, which has an environment with soft sand, calm sea with shallow water.

Dinner and overnight stay at hotel.
